IN FEAR OF EXPOSURE.

nervous frenzy and the result was the fire which destroyed her home and burned her infant and her children."

GOLD THIEVES MISSING.

Touching the mystery of the greatest doubt as to whether Mrs. Gunness is dead, is cast by the fact that the gold filling in her teeth cannot be found. Mrs. Gunness's upper teeth were almost covered with gold, some $300 worth of the precious metal being used by the dentist plating them. Inasmuch as several gold watches picked up in the house were unaccounted for it is not understood how so much gold as was in Mrs. Gunness's teeth could have disappeared.

Sheriff Smutner has ordered men to sift the ashes of the burned home in an effort to find this gold.

Regarding theory No. 2, it was learned today that Mrs. Gunness found the body of her husband and planned to insure his life and murder him.

Harry Wood, a young carpenter who lived with his parents on a farm a mile north of the Gunness home, said today that one week before the fire Mrs. Gunness gave Lampshire $2 and told him to have his life insured.

"Instead of doing that," said Mr. Wood, "she took his clothes, dollars and bought a suit of clothes. The Sunday before the fire the woman was looking everywhere for him and was heard to say that she would find him."

It was announced today by Chief of Police Cockran that a week before the Gunness home burned, little Myrtle Gunness, one of the supposed victims of the fire, was one of her playmates aside and, after binding her to secrecy, told her that her mother had murdered her father.

MAMMA KILLED PAPA.

"We have the little girl who was told this," said the chief today. "But owing to the family's desire for no publicity we will keep her name secret."

The chief said that Myrtle called the little girl aside and whispered: "If you won't tell, I'll tell you that your mamma is dead and upon being promised that it would go no further, said: "My mamma killed my papa. She hit him with a meat cleaver and he died."

Now mystery was added to the strange tragedy today when Miss Anna Copeland, a dressmaker of Laporte, told the authorities that her father, who formerly worked for Mrs. Gunness, is still her employer because of his suspicion that "something was wrong" with her.

"My father, who is now in the West, worked for Mrs. Gunness before Lampshire did. He quit because he became suspicious of her. Often times at night Mrs. Gunness would rouse my father out of bed and make him sleep in the stable.

RELIGIOUS FANATIC.

That Mrs. Gunness was a religious fanatic, self-hypnotized by the love of money into a career of crime, was the theory advanced today by Dr. Charles E. Jones, of Austin, her former physician.

Dr. Jones, with Dr. J. B. Miller, was called to attend Mrs. Sorenson, the woman first attacked on the day he died, July 1, 1906. He made some remarkable observations on the time, sudden affluence following the receipt of insurance money on the death of her first husband is also supposed by the physician to have had its effect on a mind already unhinged by religious eccentricities.

"If Mrs. Sorenson or Gunness as she later became, is guilty of the horrible murder," said Dr. Jones at his office, No. 113 Pine avenue, Austin, today, "I can explain psychologically to my own satisfaction the causes that started her on her terrible work. I remember her well as a religious fanatic type. The sudden wealth, comparatively speaking, that came to her after Gunness's death, she may have had for her an irresistible suggestion of the ease with which money might be obtained. In the incident of her husband's death her temptation to commit the alleged atrocities may have had its birth."

WEPPING TYPE.

"She was of the weeping, wailing type. And while one might expect her to be hysterical she showed an unusual fanaticism. In just such a state of mind as this a person of her type, I say suggestion would find fertile ground. I remember the woman was active in the Norwegian Lutheran Church, and was especially interested in religious work for children."

"The fact that she withheld her money to a children's charity I regard as strengthenning the theory that fanaticism may have been at the root of the unparalleled murders. It is something of the same spirit you might say as prompted tortures and burning at the stake in the name of religion in the Middle Ages."

Following Mrs. Gunness's matrimonial advertisement, with which victims were lured to death, according to our evidence.

SEARCH IN CHICAGO.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

CHICAGO, May 7.—Assistant Chief of Police Schuetter announced today that the grounds at No. 620 Almo street, Austin, occupied by Mrs. Gunness in 1906, would probably be dug up tomorrow morning, on the theory that the woman buried a victim while she was living in Chicago.

"We will never be really satisfied as to whether the woman murdered any victims in Chicago or not," said Schuetter, "until we find out definitely whether the bodies are buried in the yard of the Austin home. We are investigating old records of matrimonial papers to see if Mrs. Gunness ever advertised any particular home while living in Austin. If so, it would be possible that victims were lured to the Austin home after her husband's death."

The assistant chief visited Coroner Hoffman's office, where he conferred with the Coroner and Dr. Harold N. Moyer, a pathologist, regarding the exact position of the bodies of Mrs. Sorenson, first husband of Mrs. Gunness, and the two small Sorenson children, who died before the husband. Dr. Moyer said that traces of poison would be shown by an examination of the bodies at the present time, unless they had been embalmed with arsenical fluid. It was learned officially that Sorenson's body was found in a trunk.

Assistant Chief Schuetter discredited yesterday's report that Mrs. Gunness was a sort of clearinghouse agent for supposed "trunk murderers," who, according to a theory advanced in the excitement following the discovery of many bodies at the Laporte home, killed their victims in Chicago, cut them up and shipped them out to be buried in Indianapolis.

"I have looked up a report that there are two trunks in Chicago consigned to Mrs. Gunness," he said. "I do not know the trunks. I think it extremely unlikely that any person would ever try shipping bodies around the country in that manner, but it is a fact."

Dr. Moyer, who declares that Lampshire, who he could send Mrs. Gunness to the penitentiary for life if he wanted to, is all he knows.

INCRIMINATING.

Shortly after 6 o'clock tonight Sheriff Smutner returned from a flying trip to Chicago and engaged in a conference with his chief, who had charge of the evidence to be presented to the grand jury next Monday. It was learned that the Sheriff made personal investigation of certain Chicago phases of the case, but the main work of the meeting was declared to be for the purpose of thrashing into shape new evidence gathered at the Laporte end. There is a possibility of new arrests at any time in the near future.

An important new witness against Ray Lampshire, the carpenter and former hired man, accused of burning Mrs. Gunness and her three children alive in her house, and suspected of having previously aided the woman in some of her crimes, has been found in the person of a prominent Laporte man, who declares that Lampshire was the only man who could send Mrs. Gunness to the penitentiary for life if he wanted to.

This witness is corroborated by another reputable man who says that Lampshire told him that he was married to Mrs. Gunness. Their evidence is backed by Bessie Wallace, 36 years old, also known under the name of Conklin, of Michigan City.

The girl was sought out in the place of which she is an inmate by Deputy Sheriff Leroy Marr, and brought to Laporte and placed in jail for the purpose of making sure of her whereabouts. Later she was released on bond.

ANOTHER IDENTIFIED.

The identification of another of the bodies dug up on the Gunness farm as that of Ole B. Budsberg of Iola, Wis., and evidence that he, like Andrew Heiglein of Mansfield, S. D., had been brought into Mrs. Gunness's net through "matrimonial" advertisements, was one of the clarifying features of today's developments of the case.

The identification of the bundle of bones and flesh as the remains of Budsberg was made by the man's son, Mat Budsberg, aged 29 years, and Oscar H. H. The young man arrived here this afternoon.

Prosecuting Attorney Smith announced today that he will seek the indictment of Lampshire and will prosecute him in the case called for trial at the next term of court, which is set for May 11.

"Lampshire will be on trial within three weeks," said Mr. Smith. "So far as the State is concerned, the case is complete, and I am ready to present the evidence in court. I am satisfied that we have collected testimony of such a character that Lampshire's responsibility for the deaths in the house will be established beyond all reasonable doubt."

MANY RUMORS.

During the Sheriff's absence this afternoon, two men, thought to be Michigan City, caused considerable apprehension by breaking into the residence house on the Gunness farm where the nine cadavers have been kept since the exhumation. They raised a window in the building and one of them had already made his way into the morgue when discovered by a watchman. It is thought the men were merely led by a morbid curiosity to view the gory scenes stored in the carriage house.

Lack of excitement which attended the discovery of bodies of yesterday and Tuesday, the rumor mongers of the town made use of their opportunity to start many wild stories about the streets. These false sensations followed each other at intervals all day, but none of them bore the test of investigation.

Coroner Mack put in a busy day taking depositions from the father, sister and brother of Jennie Olsen, and from Andrew A. Helgeland of Mansfield, S. D. These documents detail at length the known relations between Mrs. Gunness and these two of her victims.

Helgeland's case proves of special interest, in that it confirmed many of the previous reports regarding the methods by which Mrs. Gunness drew the South Dakota farmer to her web.

WOMAN'S GUILES.

The Olsen testimony detailed the life of Mrs. Gunness's foster daughter, and also revealed that the woman had refused at one time to return the girl to her father.

One of the subjects discussed tonight by officials was the correspondence between Mrs. Gunness and Andrew Heiglein. The latter's brother brought a number of documents with him to the convention.

SECRET IS NOT ALLOWED.*House Committee Refuses
Confidential Statement.*Witness Says Certain Pub-

of Advance in Paper.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

WASHINGTON, May 7.—That there will be no secret record in the Committee on Bankruptcy is now established. Wood pulp and print paper question was made evident today when Chairman Mann refused to receive from a witness, in confidence, the names of certain newspaper publishers. The incident arose during the testimony of C. L. Knight, publisher of the Akron, O., Democrat.

Mr. Knight had stated that to his knowledge the increase in the price of paper had wiped out the profits of a number of papers in Ohio, and in fact, had forced one of them to the necessity of borrowing money to meet its pay rolls.

When called upon by Chairman Mann to give the names of these papers, he refused to do so, and when asked if the information came to him in a personal manner and that the publishers have been "hit hard enough" already without proclaiming to the world the fact that they were bankrupt.

He did say, however, that he would give the names to the committee in confidence and that the committee could summon them, and they could tell their experiences if they so desired.

Chairman Mann refused to receive the names under this condition, stating that if he was able to prevent it the committee would receive no information that did not go into the record.

The witness, however, added, that the newspapers in different sections of the country were examined today, and they all told the same story of a steady decline in the price of paper.

Among the publishers heard was Frank H. Noyes, president of the Associated Press, and editor and proprietor of the Chicago Record-Herald, who told of the heavy losses in buying paper, and of the scarcity of paper, and buying 100 tons of paper at $2.25 per 100 pounds when the maximum of his contract with other companies was $1.15.

The committee will have tomorrow for Corinth, N. Y., where an investigation of the Hudson River mill will be held.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—The Senate committee on the judiciary has approved a bill to establish the Bureau of Forestry. The bill was introduced by Senator Teller of Colorado, denounced the forestry service as unwise and its administration arbitrary, and Senator Dwyer of New York spoke in advocacy of the extension of the work of the forest reserves.

The bill, introduced by Senator Teller, to establish postal savings banks was made by Senator Carter of Montana.

Senator Culberson of Texas, called attention to the efforts of the President and Interstate Commerce Commission had agreed to allow the railroads to increase freight rates. This suggestion was referred to the committee on the powers of the President and the commission to make such agreement.

The Senate passed a bill appropriating $5000 toward the erection of a monument to Pocahontas at Jamestown, Va.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—The bill appropriating $5000 for the aid of Hawaiian passengers between Hawaii and other ports of the United States shall be permitted to travel on foreign vessels without being subjected to the payment of $200 penalty, was reported favorably from the Senate Committee on Commerce.

The law, fixing this penalty was passed for the encouragement of American vessels on the Pacific Ocean.

It has operated to the inconvenience of American passengers, who have not enough American vessels to handle the traffic, and travelers not infrequently have been compelled to wait for delay.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) An amendment was offered today to the Sunbury Civil Bill by Senator Flint increasing the appropriation for the improvement of the Tuolumne Valley from $30,000 to $100,000.

The House declined to increase this appropriation on the ground that there would be $30,000 additional available from the revenue of the park.

LOS ANGELES AND SAN FRANCISCO.

(Alfred Holman in the San Francisco office.)

Of the many and striking differences between Los Angeles and San Francisco the point which most interests me relates to labor. It is hardly necessary to say that labor is the chief factor in any consideration of a city. And when we consider labor conditions in San Francisco, since directly or through their effects they have formed the theme of pretty much everything that has been written in these columns in relation to San Francisco affairs during the past five or six years. If this remark seems too sweeping we beg the readers to remember that labor conditions lay back of the Ruef-Schmitz political organization and the United Railroads Company have shown that it can be done. The men in San Francisco who are reforming the city are, however, deeply responsible for the political-labor regime which San Francisco has suffered during the past half dozen years. It was chiefly labor politics which, desperately assaulting our government, brought the city into the defensive and then into an impervious and weakened it so that it could not adequately perform its functions. To put it directly, if labor politics had not so weakened the hands of the Spring Valley Water Company, long before April 15, 1906, it would have provided such facilities as not even the earthquake could have destroyed. This was because the Spring Valley Water Company was poor in the sense that it had small command of ready money again, it had but a single line of supply for its water system, it was short of water, and that it was thus poor and incapable was a direct result of labor politics. I have not by me an I have taken in detail, but that will abundantly bear out the foregoing statement. The chief engineer of the Spring Valley Water Company is perfectly untrained, the record is ignorant in single line of water supply; again and again, in public statements and before official audiences, he defined the business of the company. The plan of the company was made for regulation, allowances, and provisions that would make San Francisco safe against configuration of water system, and were wasted because our water supply system had become a football of politics and our politics had in turn become a football of contentious intrigues with the organized labor vote.

It is the chief pawn in the game. In summing up the effects of labor conditions in San Francisco during recent years, I would say that the labor vote put Abraham Ruef and Eugene Schmitz into power and was the continuing approval and support of organized and subservient labor, which, in my opinion, has caused through these municipal administrations. And let us further recall that out of this wicked régime, founded upon organized labor and social, economic, and legal strife which within the past eighteen months has been to San Francisco a thing more calamitous than the municipal disaster which preceded it. Let us recall finally that to this same system of labor combined with politics we owe the strikes that have decimated our industries and paralyzed the spirit of our people, and the social, economic, and legal strife which, in all parts of the country demanding that the present run again, are not due to Mr. Roosevelt. He knows the power among the masses of the people and is human enough to like to feel genuine satisfaction with it.

But to all who talk with him on this subject he points out how impossible his nomination is. It is impossible because he has made it impossible, because the influence of the administration and Taft's own admirable qualities and the variety of his services to the country demand his nomination.

Mr. Roosevelt, however, will be the chief pawn in the game. In summing up the effects of labor conditions in San Francisco during recent years, I would say that the labor vote put Abraham Ruef and Eugene Schmitz into power and was the continuing approval and support of organized and subservient labor, which, in my opinion, has caused through these municipal administrations. And let us further recall that out of this wicked régime, founded upon organized labor and social, economic, and legal strife which within the past eighteen months has been to San Francisco a thing more calamitous than the municipal disaster which preceded it. Let us recall finally that to this same system of labor combined with politics we owe the strikes that have decimated our industries and paralyzed the spirit of our people, and the social, economic, and legal strife which, in all parts of the country demanding that the present run again, are not due to Mr. Roosevelt. He knows the power among the masses of the people and is human enough to like to feel genuine satisfaction with it.

But to all who talk with him on this subject he points out how impossible his nomination is. It is impossible because he has made it impossible, because the influence of the administration and Taft's own admirable qualities and the variety of his services to the country demand his nomination.

Mr. Roosevelt, however, will be

THE CITY IN BRIEF

Waiting for the report.

NEWS AND BUSINESS

Gas Meeting Postponed.

A meeting of the stockholders of the City Gas Company, which was to have been held yesterday afternoon in the Wilcox Building, has been postponed to June 4. At that time a new directorate is to be chosen.

Young Kibbey Recovering.

W. C. Kibbey, son of the Governor of Arizona, is recovering from an attack of delirious tremens, which was at first mistaken for attempted suicide. Young Kibbey, following a protracted illness, collapsed in his office Wednesday afternoon and was admitted to the Clara Barton Hospital yesterday, where it was said his condition was favorable.

Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker, the blind singers, will be entertained by their friends at the Bible Institute, No. 260 South Main, this evening. The occasion will be the celebration of the twenty-fourth wedding anniversary of this couple. A special service of song will be given in which Mr. and Mrs. Baker and others will take part.

Polytechnic Glee Club.

The Boys' Glee Club of the Polytechnic High School will give an entertainment this evening under the auspices of the Ward 10 council. The auditorium of the Polytechnic building is excellent in the "Poly" glee club, and the members have worked hard to make the affair this evening an outstanding success. The program will consist of songs, an effective camp scene, gay chorus and pantomime, violin solo, reading and selections by the orchestra.

CUTS DUTY ON SUGAR.

New Budget Presented to House of Commons by Premier Asquith. Comments on National Debt.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.I. LONDON, May 7.—The new budget reduces the duty on sugar from 1s to 1s 1d per hundred. The reduction will become effective May 18, on raw and refined sugar, and on July 1 on articles manufactured with sugar.

The budget, for the first time in many years, was presented to the House of Commons this spring by the Premier. Mr. Asquith's budget, a budget of recent years has been awaited with as much interest as this one. Everybody was keen to learn of the government's scheme for old-age pensions; the House consequently was packed, and its galleries were overflowing with visitors.

Mr. Asquith, after commencing briefly on the present slackening trade throughout the world, following the boom of 1907, announced that Great Britain's surplus of 1907-08 amounted to $20,000,000, which he said, would be largely applied to the reduction of the national debt.

The national debt, the Premier said, had been reduced by approximately $90,000,000 during the past year. A further reduction of about $75,000,000 will be effected during the current year, and Great Britain's debt would stand at the same figure as twenty years ago.

JAPS CRUSH BOYCOTT.

Pressure Brought on Government, Leads Viceroys to Take Severe Steps Against It.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.I. SHANGHAI, May 7.—The Chinese boycott of Japanese goods, which came about as a result of the humiliation inflicted on the Chinese by Japan in securing what the Japanese considered an unfair settlement of the Taku Maru case, will soon die a natural death.

The movement was started by the Chinese merchants, who endeavored to carry the propaganda into the various parts of China by sending urgent telegrams asking the residents to join the boycott. This movement did not succeed on account of the strong opposition taken by the Chinese, who took severe steps to prevent its growth and who succeeded in stopping the Cantonese merchants in Tien-Tsin, Shanghai and Ningpo from joining.

This attitude by the viceroys doubtless a result of Japanese pressure upon China. Two societies, one the Society of National Disarmament, and the other a women's organization, were induced to help the movement. The establishment is of interest as showing the national spirit everywhere manifested in China.

Pressured New Zealand.

It is estimated that New Zealand has an available coal supply of 1,200,000,000 tons, of which not more than 20,000,000 tons have been touched. This was the first of the British colonies to take the amount of State ownership of colliery property.

The wealth of New Zealand, according to recent statistics, is $1,100 per person, and is said to be the highest in the world. As this wealth is more evenly distributed than in other countries the showing is even more favorable than appears at first thought.

DIAMOND JUBILEE
ROYALTY HONORS
FRANCIS JOSEPH.

KAISER WILHELM CONGRATULATES AUSTRIAN EMPEROR.

Heads of Princely House of Germany, Led by Their Chief, Join in Festivities in Vienna Celebrating Sixtieth Anniversary of Beginning of Monarch's Reign.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.I. VIENNA, May 7.—The heads of the princely house of Germany, led by Emperor William, have assembled in Vienna to present the diamond jubilee to Emperor Francis Joseph on the occasion of the diamond jubilee of his reign as Emperor-King of Austria-Hungary, and to inaugurate a series of festivities with which the jubilee is to be celebrated throughout the dual monarchy.

Emperor William and the Empress arrived at the Median Railroad station this morning from Pola, where they landed yesterday from the imperial yacht Hohenauern. The royal visitors were met and welcomed at the station by Emperor Francis Joseph, who accompanied them by train to the residence of the Emperor-King. The Emperor-King was received by the Emperor-King, and was followed by Emperor William.

The Austrian archdukes and the principal officials, the members of the German Embassy and the burgomaster of Vienna, were present. The Emperor-King, Emperor Francis Joseph alighted from the train, and was followed by Emperor William.

The great gathering of royalty attracted a host of visitors to Vienna. The city has been decked with bunting and triumphal arches spanning the principal thoroughfares.

Emperor William and his wife, the Empress, were given a magnificent reception. Shortly before noon all the royal visitors were driven out in carriages to the palace, and as the Emperor-King and the Empress entered, they were joined by Emperor William and the Empress.

The procession, composed of German princes, all brilliant uniforms, was led by Emperor William and his wife, then proceeded to the Marie Antoinette salon, where Emperor Francis Joseph awaited his visitors.

Emperor William made a speech, in which he tendered Emperor Francis Joseph the congratulations of those present upon the sixtieth anniversary of the beginning of his reign.

WAR SCARE.

RUSSO-TURKISH CLASH FEARED.

POPULACE IN THE CAUCASIANS BECOMES UNEASY.

Extensive Military Preparations Are Being Made by Russia Along the Turkish Border, and the Move Leads to the Expectation of War Developments.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.I. ST. PETERSBURG, May 7.—The military preparations now being made by Russia on the Turkish border have attracted the attention of the foreign Consulate in the Caucasus and several of these representatives have in reports regarding the uneasiness of the population and the expectation of trouble with Turkey.

A Consul from Batoum, received at one of the embassies here, details the arrival by sea, of Russian artillery, a great quantity of ammunition and stores of various kinds, which are being forwarded to the south. Furthermore, the military authorities are getting together large quantities of army supplies.

It has been learned here that a cavalry regiment left Tiflis April 2 for the frontier and the Caucasian army has been in a state of alert since early in June, ostensibly for maneuvers, although these exercises generally are held at the end of the summer. The battery of mountain guns has left Kifissia for the Caucasus and the railroad lines running to the Caucasus continue to be burdened with munitions of war with the forces assembling at Tiflis.

No news has been received here for several days past of the Russian punitive expedition into Persia. It seems that the detachment is making time, pending the arrival of reinforcements in order to administer an adequate lesson to the brigand tribes.

An enormous crowd.

More than 7,500,000 pounds of human fat are transported through the streets of New York every day in public cars. In other words, more than 50,000 different people use hired vehicles every day to transport themselves about the city. A cabman, a streetcar, a bus, a car. Moreover, according to the cab people who have made a study of the situation, there are fully 10,000 people, exclusive of babies and invalids, who never use the street cars.

MARRIAGES, DIVORCE.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.I. SHANGHAI, May 7.—The Chinese boycott of Japanese goods, which came about as a result of the humiliation inflicted on the Chinese by Japan in securing what the Japanese considered an unfair settlement of the Taku Maru case, will soon die a natural death.

Another Gift Made to the University of Southern California by Mrs.
Anna G. Huff.A gift of $1000 endowing a perpetual scholarship was received yesterday by President Deems of the University on behalf of the University of Southern California.

The donor is Mrs. Anna G. Huff, who has made donations aggregating over $30,000 to the Methodist institution in the past twenty years.

The newly-created scholarship will bear the name of Rev. A. M. Huff, deceased husband of the donor, and the benevolent is to be nominated by the president of the university. It is designed to furnish aid to students preparing especially for the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal church.The announcement of the gift was formally made at the college chapel executed yesterday morning. Dr. Deems, President, and Dean E. A. Head of the College of Theology, each delivered briefaddresses on the life work of Mrs. Huff, and spoke of the faithful and efficient service of Rev. Mr. Huff, whose local and national reputation was well known.

SUBSTITUTES
FOR ASIATICS.Latin Races May Remove the Yellow Peril.Real Attempt to Solve Very Ugly Problem.Immigration Commission to Study Question.That the Asiatic problem of this State will be settled by bringing here agriculturists from Latin Europe, is the conviction of William B. Wheeler of San Francisco, just appointed by the President as Assistant Secretary of Commerce and Labor. As a member of the Immigration Commission, which is working into the character and antecedents of aliens in this country, his presence in the city at this time is significant."I am on my way to Washington to assume the duties of the office to which the President appointed me last week," said Wheeler at the Alexandria last night. "A close study of the aliens now resident in the Pacific Coast States is to be made by the commissioners. The commission, consisting of Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, Prof. Jeremiah
Jenck of Cornell University and myself, Prof. Mitchell of the University of California, will be in charge of the field work in this State."He stated that aliens of pronounced anarchistic tendencies will be searched for in connection with the investigation, but that the most important work in this State will be the consideration of the Asiatic labor problem."It is my profound conviction that the great problem of labor from Southern Europe, Japanese and Chinese laborers will ultimately settle one of the great problems of this State," said the Assistant Secretary.With the completion of the Panama Canal, the tide of immigration which now sweeps steadily into New York City will be partially diverted to the Pacific Coast and desirable farmers will be located on these shores in increasing numbers."As a long resident of this State, I realize, of course, that the employment of Asiatics has given rise to a serious complication. I believe the whole question can be settled amicably and surely by the introduction of Italians and others of the Latin race who take kindly to agricultural pursuits."

THE PUBLIC SERVICE

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The report of the city pound-keeper, which for the fifth year running shows that nearly 500 dogs were captured from the streets last month, of which 357 were killed under the law.

The playground clubhouse at Echo Park is nearly completed, and the Playground Commission is preparing for its dedication on the 20th inst.

Lieut.-Commander Cone of the second torpedo boat division has written a letter to the Mayor, expressing appreciation of the attention given in Los Angeles to the offer.

Judge Hutton heard evidence yesterday in E. E. Squires' suit against his wife, Mrs. E. E. Squires, to set aside his decree of community property on grounds of fraud.

William Coleman's examination on a charge of embezzlement, preferred by J. P. Labrucherie, was partially completed by Justice Summerfield.

Justice Summerfield dismissed a charge of disturbing the peace, brought against Mrs. R. C. Krebs by J. Grimes.

A news dealer was arrested yesterday for selling papers publishing race results, the prosecuting attorney regarding this as disseminating tips.

AT THE CITY HALL.

DOG-CATCHER JOB PAYS BIG.

OVER FOUR THOUSAND CANINES YEARLY DEATH RATE.

Nearly Five Hundred Taken from Streets Last Month, but Lives of Many Are Spared—Playground Clubhouse Nearly Completed—License Clerk Makes Report.

George B. Vacher, the official pound-keeper, yesterday filed his report for the month of April with the City Clerk, showing a flourishing trade at the headquarters for dog-heaven passengers. During the month he and his cohorts captured 471 dogs on the streets of Los Angeles, 257 of which were killed and buried. Of the remaining 214, 55 proved to be licensed, 151 were sold for twenty-one others, and fifty-eight, principally country dogs, were redeemed.

In addition to the dogs, sixty-one horses, mules and cows were gathered in the pound, and were released at a total cost of $14.25. For the reduction of dogs, Vacher collected $21, making the total receipts of the pound $25.35, which was paid into the city treasury. The dog catcher gets his pay at the rate of $1 a head for each dog killed and buried, and $1 for each other dog passing through the pound, making his receipts $48 for the month of April. Deducting the expenses for the pound, which were $10, the net amount was $32.75, or about $2.20 per year, and if dogs were killed at the same rate for twelve months, it would foot up a total of 424 dogs killed in a single year—a dog-gone big business.

Playground Commission. Charles B. Raitt, superintendent for the Playground Commission, reported yesterday that the work on the playground No. 2 at Echo Park is fast nearing completion, and all arrangements are made to dedicate it on May 20. Lieut.-Commander Cone, commanding officer of the Playground Commission of America, will be here to take a leading part in the ceremonies. The building is a large bungalow, costing $4000. It is done up in the latest in the Violet-street playground, and has conveniences of the most practical kind.

More Pleased Sailors.

Major Harper yesterday received a letter from Lieutenant-Commander H. I. Cone of the torpedo boat destroyer Hobart, expressing his thanks to our men and to the Hospital Treatment Committee for the hospital treatment accorded them during their visit to this city. In closing Commander Cone said: "I am sure that the men of the Hobart and the men of the Hobart will be pleased to learn that there is no better city on the map than the one over which you have the honor to preside."

Fortification Prospects.

A letter was received yesterday from Congressman McLachlan by Mayor Harmer, in which the writer states that an amendment has been introduced in the Senate, for the fortification of San Pedro harbor. The Congressman expresses serious doubts as to the wisdom of the plan through the House. Of the $5,000,000 carried by the fortification bill, he says $4,000,000 is distributed on the Pacific Ocean, as the bill left the House, and that at the present time the prospects are not flattering for the same month last year.

Fire Commission.

At the meeting of the Fire Commission yesterday the claims of A. Biderman, who had a $1000 bill of lading lost that of A. Johnson, amounting to $24.75, were referred to Chief Lips for investigation and report. These are the first and last claims before the Fire Commission, while the rest were on an exercise run. The bill of the Emergency Hospital against driver Owen Lambie amounting to $90.20, also was referred to the city. C. C. Gurnard, who appointed a passenger, and two emergency horses, G. W. Brenner and William Kirk, were dropped.

Great Licenses Increase.

The report of the City Clerk for the month of April shows that month to have been a record-breaker in the issuance of licenses. The total amount collected was $85,391.72, or about $1000 more than for the same month last year.

DEATH OF DR. STRONG.

Dr. Colin G. Strong, a San Francisco physician and druggist, but a resident of Los Angeles since the big fire of two years ago, died yesterday at No. 2127 West Sixth street, his passing being due principally to a heart ailment.

He was 81 years old and was born in Edinburgh, Scotland, where his father was stationed at the time in the construction of the Suez Canal. Dr. Strong served for more than three years as a United States army surgeon during the Civil War, and was a member of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States, the Grand Army of the Republic. He leaves a widow, a brother, Gen. Henry Strong of Chicago and Santa Barbara, a former president of the San Joaquin. The funeral will be held at 10:30 o'clock Monday morning at the home of Dr. Strong's niece, Mrs. W. R. Wherry, No. 1707 Hobart boulevard.

UNDELIVERED TELEGRAMS.

There are 1000 messages at the office of the Postal Telegraph Company for Jack McKee, Dr. D. S. McCarthy, A. R. Sprague, Jacob F. Snyder, Thaddeus S. Lane, R. Carlton Knight, E. T. Duvall, Ralph Dillon, Charles D'Amato and Roy Armstrong.

ELECTION RETURNS.

FAILURE OF SCHEME TO QUEER THE VOTE.

As A RESULT of Lissner's tricky attempt to nullify votes cast in the primaries, some 175 alarmed election officers have been called to appear before the Board of Supervisors.

There was no question as to the voting being legitimate, cast. Lissner's object was to upset a hair-splitting technicality—a clerical error on the part of the election clerks.

His objection in the first instance was raised against a precinct which went for the "regular ticket," but some thirty other precincts were found to have been similarly affected.

Lissner became blustered into the Supervisor's room on the day after election while the board was canvassing election returns. He seemed to realize that the election officers might properly be allowed to come before the canvassing board and correct their errors.

The result was that about 200 subpoenas were placed in the hands of the election officers.

Respectable citizens at their business were notified that the Sheriff wanted them and human tresses present at the polls straightway to stand on the board where they were allowed to correct the error in the election papers.

Most of the mistakes consisted in birds not being counted.

Even this had very little effect and the chief clerk at length told Lissner summarily and with vigor to let the books alone. "Any more to you damn fool," he snapped Lissner.

Lissner, who took the matter under advisement until yesterday. He decided that the election officers might properly be allowed to come before the canvassing board and correct their errors.

The election officers had neglected to bring in the proper blank election warrant to indicate which convention the elected delegates were representing. The Lincoln-Roosevelt watchers asserted that this mistake invalidates the votes.

To throw out all the votes on the slim ground of a little clerical error was so unfair that the matter was referred to the attorney general.

Shanahan, who took the matter under advisement until yesterday. He decided that the election officers might properly be allowed to come before the canvassing board and correct their errors.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

FAMILY FIGHT FOR PROPERTY.

HUSBAND BATTLES WITH WIFE OVER ESTATE.

Asserts Woman Tricked Him by False Promises into Dissolving Partnership of Community Holding and Then Deserted Him, While Wife Makes Sensational Counter Charges.

"In October, 1905, I deeded half our community property to my wife on her oft-repeated promise that she would hold it as a provision for our old age. Then she deeded it to her sister and deserted me without cause," Edward E. Squires, a contractor in his sixties, told Justice Summerfield yesterday. Mrs. E. B. Squires, to set aside his conveyance on the ground of fraud.

Mrs. Squires denies that any promise of the kind was made by her, and asserts that the trouble between herself and Squires is due entirely to his extravagant and profligate habits, which she claims he has been guilty of for many years past.

Mrs. Squires denies that any portion of the property was held in her name, and that her husband has been guilty of having raised the value of his property, when he sold it to her.

Mrs. Squires asserted that when she went to the division after the division was made, she told her husband he must mend his ways if they were to live together again, and that he must get control of his household affairs. She did not put them in her husband's room, April 17, and was given one year in San Quentin.

ANNUALMENT. Asking the court to annul her marriage, Mrs. May Lingefelter of Covina yesterday filed in Justice Rose's Court suit against Isaac Lingefelter, who has been in prison since March 1906, under the name of J. W. Windell, and by whom she had a daughter. About fourteen months ago Lingefelter, a carpenter, left his wife living in Kansas. He admitted it, and then disappeared. Both wives are hunting him now, to secure his imprisonment.

CHARGES FRAUD. Bason Chase yesterday filed in the Superior Court suit against Mr. and Mrs. Pauline Miller and Mrs. Frank Sternbaum to set aside Lathrop's deed of a lot to Mrs. Sternbaum on the ground of fraud. Sternbaum alleged that Lathrop, who had been his friend and mentor, was coerced into giving up his lot to Mrs. Sternbaum to prevent him from realizing anything from a suit he was in the Superior Court against Lathrop.

COLLISION. Charging that the negligent operation of a trolley car at Central and Gladys avenue April 24, caused the death of his team, a 10-year-old gelding, with his team, he was seriously injured. John Monahan yesterday filed in the Superior Court a $2500 personal injury suit against the Los Angeles and Redondo Railroad Company.

MATERNITY. Asking $1000 monthly maintenance, Mrs. Pauline Miller, widow of Frank Miller, filed suit against Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sternbaum to set aside Lathrop's deed of a lot to Mrs. Sternbaum on the ground of fraud. Sternbaum alleged that Lathrop, who had been his friend and mentor, was coerced into giving up his lot to Mrs. Sternbaum to prevent him from realizing anything from a suit he was in the Superior Court against Lathrop.

COMMISSION. Judge Monroe yesterday gave judgment in favor of William L. Lefever, Jr., who was sued by the State for $1000 for services alleged to be due for securing a trolley right of way in the neighborhood of the Lingefelter ranch.

INCORPORATIONS. Articles of incorporation were filed with the County Clerk yesterday by the National Home for the Aged, Riverside Development Company, capital stock, $25,000; the St. John Mining and Milling and Smelting Company, capital stock, $1,000,000; and the Northern Oil Company capital $25,000.

NEIGHBORS AT GATES. Six small urchins, seven women and a company of husbands and brothers appeared in Justice Summerfield's court yesterday to give testimony regarding the arrest of Mrs. E. B. Squires, to set aside the trolley right of way in the neighborhood of the Lingefelter ranch.

WHO IS OWNER? TITLE PRESENTS PUZZLE.

"It looks to me as if it has been some mighty hard practice," Justice Summerfield said yesterday at William Coleman's examination on an embezzlement charge preferred by J. P. Labrucherie.

Coleman's counsel urged that his client had a title from Labrucherie to the Ramona lodges-house, No. 399, and that he had sold it to the woman while the two were on an exercise run. The bill of the Emergency Hospital against driver Owen Lambie amounting to $90.20, also was referred to the city. C. C. Gurnard, who appointed a passenger, and two emergency horses, G. W. LET US HAVE PEACE.

Once again The Times urges harmony in the ranks of the Republican party. It seems as if this were a moment when the appeal would receive a ready hearing. The primaries are over, with all the personal ambitions, rivalries, contentions and bitterness usually attending such events. The personal quarrels were not of our making, and we deplored time and again all such dissension. Our contention was for principles, not for persons. The regular party organization won. The victory includes our own city, our own county, and the State. With this substantial victory on our side, we now say to both sides: "Stop factional strife, get together, let us have peace, and prepare for the conflict with the real antagonists of the party in view, it matters little who they are."

The securing of a delegation to Chicago pledged to Secretary Taft never was in question. This we pointed out almost daily. Republicans of all shades of opinion agreed on this point. It was a mere detail, and a small one, who should go to Chicago to cast the ballots of the State for Mr. Taft. That matters little now. So long as they are tried, true Republicans who can be trusted to do the work faithfully and intelligently from a party point of view, it matters little who they are.

We think we have a right to make an appeal for harmony to Republicans in behalf of Mr. Taft. The Times has a large circulation that may well rival The Independent. The greatest of the leading classes is its steady patron. The greatest volume of business advertising, the best classification, the largest readership, is in advertising. The Times is the best.

DOVE DESCENDING.
PARISH TROUBLE
NEARING END.HARMONY SOON TO BE RESTORED
IN CHURCH OF ANGELS.

New Wardens Elected—Hero of the Merrimac Lectures in Pasadena Tonight—Men's Clubs Banquet—Universalist Pastor Will Remain With Congregation.

OF THE TIMES, NO. 28, RAYMOND AVA.

PASADENA, May 8.—Within the next few weeks is expected the restoration of harmony in the church of the Angels. These are the parishes and the two Campbell-Johnson brothers, who hold as trustees the pretty chapel, which was built as a memorial to their father. The property has never been deeded to the church and since its opening, in 1888, twenty-one rectors have occupied the pulpit. The term of Rev. Milton S. Runkle, who resigned on April 12, covered the last three years. There was no trouble between the rector and the parishioners of the church yet the parishioners say that he was made to feel uncomfortable and that this caused his resignation.

At the meeting of the vestry, Tuesday night, D. Z. Gardner was elected senior warden, and Fred Haynford, junior warden.

It is said that Bishop Johnson has not been able to get a clamorous to take the church regularly since Rev. Mr. Runkle resigned.

Last night Mr. Gardner, when asked about the situation, acknowledged that there had been considerable feeling over Rev. Mr. Runkle's leaving and that a meeting would probably be called at which both sides would be represented and that, at that time, an adjustment would be made.

A. Campbell-Johnson said last night that he knew of no trouble in the church and that there had been no dispute between the rector and the former rector.

HERO COMING.

Capt. Richard Pearson Hobson, hero of the Merrimac and Congressman from Alabama, will be the guest of the Spanish War Veterans this afternoon and will lecture tonight. Dr. John W. Baer, president of Occidental College, will entertain the captain at dinner.

INSTRUCTORS TO GATHER.

The semi-annual meeting of the School Masters' Club of Southern California, according to an announcement made yesterday evening by the president, Arthur C. Chamberlain, of Long Beach, will be held in Los Angeles on the evening of May 15. It will be "fadies' night" and the following educators will speak: Mrs. W. H. Hobson, of Los Angeles; Mrs. Anna Lewis, of Avery's Redondo; President George A. Gates of Pomona College; President George F. Board of the University of Southern California, and President Wm. B. Bier of Occidental College.

MEN'S CLUB BANQUET.

The annual banquet of the Pasadena Federation of Men's Clubs will be held in the Presbyterian Church on May 18. Prominent speakers are being invited to address the gathering and the occasion will be one of the highlights of the year in church circles. Only 300 can be accommodated in the church parlors and early application must be made to the secretary in order to secure seats.

CONCERT IS SUCCESS.

The first concert given by the Y.M.C.A. boys and Crown City girls' amateur club at the Shakespeare Clubhouse last night was a great success. A large audience heard the musicians with great interest. Director Edward T. Warren proved a good conductor.

The Crown City Girls' Club never appeared in public before, but made a very favorable impression. Its members are Margaret Richardson, Louise Weir, Elizabeth Street, Barbara Holmes, Lucile McNabb and Gladys Huntington.

BEGINS OBSERVATIONS.

Edwin Soror, who has just established his instruments for observing the weather, made his first record yesterday. His compass shows the maximum temperature at 44 degrees, and the minimum 45, with the wind westerly, at the rate of ten to fifteen miles an hour.

During the rainy season he will keep records.

LEGAL BARRIERS DOWN.

By the middle of next week it is believed that the chief barriers which have stood in the way of the purchase of local water properties will be down, yesterday the attorneys of the two big concerns, the Lake Vineyard Land and Water Company and the Pasadena and Water Company, completed their arrangement for the control of the city. It will now be examined by City Attorney J. Perry Cook and then submitted to the principal of the school for instituting fire drills.

WATER BOARD'S PROBLEM.

The water board had a new problem to solve regarding rates when several buildings are erected on one lot. Heretofore one rate was made, and it is mandatory that fire extinguishers be put in such places. It is the duty of the Marshals to see that the ordinance is enforced. Should fire break out now, much loss of life and property might result, because of neglect to comply with the law. Many residents of the city are of the opinion that Mrs. Bentham should be made president by a unanimous vote.

NO FIRE PROTECTION.

An investigation brings out the fact that the ordinance created for fire protection in the hotels and boarding houses is not being enforced.

The time and place makes it mandatory that fire extinguishers be put in such places. It is the duty of the Marshals to see that the ordinance is enforced.

The proposed rate of 10 cents per cubic foot of water will be the principal of the school for instituting fire drills.

WILL REMAIN AS PASTOR.

Rev. S. G. Dushman yesterday announced his intention of remaining in Pasadena, and formally accepted the extended by the congregation of the Universalist Church Wednesday night. He will now begin his seventh year as head of this church.

PASADENA NEWS ITEMS.

Newspaper men who brought members during the Y.M.C.A. membership contest will be present at a supper this evening. The funeral of O. W. Whitmore, who died Wednesday evening at his home in this city, will be held on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the North Mountain View Cemetery.

"I suffered from sciatic rheumatism for a year and a half after an attack of the grip," says Mr. J. C. Sutherlin, of 103 North Olive street, Goshen, Ind., "and was confined to my bed for a month at a time and for two weeks lying with my legs drawn up with my feet under my chin. The doctor gave me hydrostatic injections. The pain was in both legs from the hips to the toes and was sharp and stinging. I couldn't sleep nights without binding my legs tightly with cloths. My appetite was gone and what I ate distressed me. My stomach felt hard and pained me. I was under the care of one doctor for two months, of another for six months and of another for perhaps three months. They all called my trouble sciatic but didn't help me. I tried everything that was recommended to me, but nothing gave me relief. I then went to the baths at Martinsville. I took the baths for about four weeks and got only a little relief. Then I got another doctor. An acquaintance gave me a part of a box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and told me to try them. I felt a little better from them and took a few boxes more and was cured. I now have no rheumatism now, weigh 225 pounds and I have recommended the pills to lots of people, as I think they are the best medicine on earth."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do not simply relieve pain but they cure, and cure permanently, diseases caused by depraved or vitiated blood. They actually make new blood and have therefore a direct and powerful curative effect on such diseases as rheumatism, anemia, general debility and after-effects of the grip. For the debilitated upon the grip, for nourishment and medication, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are unequalled for the treatment of even the most severe nervous disorders, such as neuralgia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance and locomotor ataxia.

SMALL BOY SAVED.

What might have been a drowning fatality was averted, late yesterday afternoon, by the quick action of C. C. Steinberg, a lumber-handler, bound to the steamer Marshfield. Leslie Dobbs, 10 years old, and son of Merrick, 10 years old, were fishing from a skiff near the vessel when Leslie reached the water. He fell overboard and the elated boy tried to swim but the star and the struggling boy perished. Just then Steinberg noted the accident and a small boat, leaped from the Marshfield deck, and came to the rescue, taking the oars from Merrick, who was in an exhausted condition.

PASTOR INSTALLED.

Rev. Richard A. Vander Las has been formally installed as pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Rev. R. G. Cleland of Long Beach, to succeed Rev. Charles M. Fisher, another former pastor, the charge to the people. The sermon was delivered by Rev. Hugh K. Walker, D.D., of the First Presbyterian Church. Present were Rev. Henry Quincy, C. A. Kent, F. W. Parsons, C. H. Marsh and Asst. Johnson.

THE PAUPER OF PARK LANE

BY WILLIAM LEQUEUX.

(Copyright, 1908, by William Le Queux.)
"Nor do I. His money has a curse upon it—money I picked from the pockets of widows and orphans, money that has been obtained by fraud and misrepresentation," cried Adams. "Today as in his respect and lauded on account of his wealth, he has nothing to show, yet yesterday he floated rotten concerns and coolly placed hundreds of thousands in his pocket by raking in the glow-worm profits that he never fancied. No," he said, clutching his strong, hard fist: "I don't want a single penny of his money. You, Lyle, may have what you want, of—thirty thousand to be the minimum."

"You talk as though you contemplated handling his fortune," the other retorted, in some alarm.

"When I reveal to him my intentions, his banking account will be at my disposal, depend upon it." Adams said. "But I don't want any of his money. I have redressed the wrongs I have my revenge. It shall be an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth. He showed me no mercy and I will show him none."

But Mr. Marion Wolfe, who will assist me towards that end, and the girl at Cunningham's, Marion Wolfe, who must be married now."

Lyle remained thoughtful, his eyes upon the carpet.

"Yes," he said, slowly, at last. "I quite follow you, darling. Your intentions are right, though she is a woman. Is it just—just in human nature?"

"Human," echoed the cosmopolitan, removing his cigarette as he shrigged his shoulders with a nonchalant air.

"To me it matters nothing."

As I attain my object. Surely you are not chicken-hearted enough to be moved by a woman's tears."

I don't understand you," his friend declared.

"No; I suppose you don't," he answered. "And, to be frank with you, Lyle, I don't intend to let this moment pass you by. My intention is my own affair. I merely forebore to do you the importation into the affair of a woman who will, through no fault of her own, be a burden to you in order to allow me to achieve the object I have in view."

The hunchback turned slightly towards the curtain, which he moved quickly in order to conceal an expression upon his face which had been detected by his companion, the startling and unusual events recorded in the following chapters would surely never have occurred.

But John Adams, standing there in ignorance, was chuckling over the success of the terrible triumph which was to prove very soon to be a triumph to be secured by the sacrifice of an honest woman.

CHAPTER XV.

MORE ABOUT MARION.

The following Sunday afternoon was warm and bright, perfect for up-river excursions, and, as was their usual habit, Max and Marion were spending the day together.

Released from the eternal bustle of business, the girl looked forward with eager anticipation to each Saturday afternoon and Sunday—the weekly period of rest and recreation. To the assistant in shop, where the "Huntington" system pertains, Sunday is the one bright spot in an otherwise dull, dreary and monotonous life, the day when he or she gets away from the weariness of being business-like, the sum of the "goods" and the sum of the buyers or shop-walkers, and when one is one's own master for a few brief hours.

To those not apprised in their youth to the life and who, being born in a higher social class, have been compelled to enter business as a means of livelihood, the long hours are terribly irksome, especially in winter, when artificial light is still nearly the whole day.

The work is so monotonous, so monotonous, and the pay very meager; therefore, customers need hardly be surprised when a tired assistant does not take the time to exert himself unduly to satisfy her little wants.

In summer, Marion loved the river. The air was fresh and healthful, after the vitiated atmosphere of the costume department at Cunington's. Usually Max brought his little maid home from Biffen's, at the Hammersmith Bridge, where he kept it, up to Kew, and there they would embark in the morning and run up to the famous County Estates or even Weybridge, getting their luncheon or tea at one or other of the old riverside inns, and spending a lazy afternoon up some quiet leafy backwater, where the kingfishers skinned the surface of the stream, and the water lilies lay upon their broad, green leaves.

Those long hours spent together were always delightful.

Indeed, a wet Sunday was indeed a calamity. On the afternoon in question they had met at Kew bridge at an old, well-known place upon the crimson cushions in the station, they were ascending the broad staircase, the motor running as evenly as a clock, and leaving a small wash in their wake, and the girl was in a better mood, lover before, because she had spent the morning with a poor girl who had been a fellow-assistant at Cunningham's, and was in Guy's Hospital.

The girl was friendless in a dangerous condition, therefore Marion had given up her morning and taken her some grapes.

There were not many people on the river, for pleasure-seekers usually prefer the reaches above Richmond. The craft they passed was mostly sailing boats, the rowing club at Chiswick, and the inevitable launch of the Thames Conservancy.

In a well-cut gown of plain white cotton, with lace trimmings, her hair in a straw hat of muslin, in the shape of a band with a pale-blue velvet, and a white sunshade over her shoulder, she looked delightfully fresh and cool. She was in a navy serge suit and a peaked cap, which she looked delightfully dainty, and had tried to conjure up a vision of what figure she would present in a well-cut white suit, a little later, however, she did not possess.

The shop assistant has but little need of décolleté, and, indeed, its very possession and use can be dangerous. She is plainly more modest, and more elderly, by section of the girls in the house.

More than once Max had wanted to take her to the star of the theater in an evening gown, but she had always declared that she preferred wearing a light blouse. As a man generally is, he was blunderer, and she could not well explain how by the practice of evening gowns she could at once dominate herself in the eyes of her fellow-assistants. As was well known, her eyes at Cunington's certainly did not allow of such a display, the theater gowns, and from the very first she had always declined to accept Max's well-meant presents.

The only present of his that she had kept was the pretty ring now upon her slim, white hand, a ring set with sapphires and diamonds and inscribed within, "From Max to Marion," with the date.

As she leaned back enjoying the fresh air, after the dust and stifling heat of London, she was relating how pleased the poor invalid had been at her visit, and he was listening to her description of her friend's desperation
